This July, you can vote at any polling location in Harris County during Early Voting and on Election Day. Find a location near you at HarrisVotes.com.

What you’ll need to vote
Make sure you bring one of these accepted forms of identification:
- Texas Driver License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS
- Texas Handgun License issued by DPS
- United States Military Identification Card containing the person’s photograph
- United States Citizenship Certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States Passport (book or card)

Don’t have an acceptable form of ID?
If a voter does not possess and cannot reasonably obtain a photo ID, they may still cast a regular ballot by presenting a supporting form of ID and executing a Reasonable Impediment Declaration, noting the voter’s reasonable impediment to obtaining an acceptable form of photo identification.

About the ballot
- Voters in the Texas primaries and conventions choose who will run for office in the November General Elections.
- Find your specific sample ballot at HarrisVotes.com. The items on your ballot may vary depending on which area of the county you reside.
- In Texas, a registered voter may vote in either the Republican Primary Election or the Democratic Primary Election (NOT both) during the same voting year.
- When you go vote, you can bring a marked sample ballot or a Voters Guide into the voting booth with you.
